To Federal Election Commission
Fm: Vona Copp, Treasurer
Doug Ose for Congress

Re: FEC letter dated July 28, 2014

Two vendors sent their invoices to Doug Ose for Congress in February 2014 for their work completed in 2013. These invoices were received after the 2013 year-end filing was due.

The two vendors are as follows:

FP1 Strategies, LLC $ 28,550.00 Invoice received by treasurer on 2/5/14

KPA Strategies, Inc. $ 3,567.50 Invoice received by treasurer on 2/16/14

KPA Strategies, Inc. $ 9,833.95 Invoice received by treasurer on 2/16/14

KPA Strategies, Inc. $ 5,639.00 Invoice received by treasurer on 2/16/14

These invoices account for the change of $ 47,580.45 in debts owed from the initial filing of the 10/1/13 ? 12/31/13 year-end report.

These vendors were contacted and the FEC regulations governing accrued expenses were explained and an amendment was filed to correct our earlier filing.

I trust this answers all questions posed in your letter of July 28, 2014.

Thank you.
